Information for clients: Motoring Offences (summary only offences)

Introduction

As part of our professional rules, we aim to ensure that anyone wishing to use our services has the information they need to make an informed choice of legal services provider, including understanding what the costs may be.

Why instruct Whiterose Blackmans Solicitors?

From our offices in Leeds, West Yorkshire, Whiterose Blackmans Solicitors LLP provide the most appropriate advice and representation in Criminal Law cases, both Legal Aid and privately funded.

Our experienced Criminal Defence Team have been defending successfully in serious, complex and high-profile criminal cases and we have an excellent reputation for our criminal defence work. We provide a quality service from the Police Station to the Court of Appeal in Legal Aid and privately funded cases.

We have a huge amount of experience of advising and representing people accused of offences, ranging from Speeding to Causing Death by Dangerous Driving. Our proven track record in helping people keep their licence is well known. We will fight for you where others won't. Unlike many national firms, we will not refer work to self-employed agents. We will allocate you a specialist solicitor who will be available to you throughout the process.

ⁱ A summary only offence is an offence which can only be tried in the magistrates' court. There are exceptions. Under the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (CJA 1988) offences specified in the Act can be tried on indictment by a jury if they are linked to an offence triable only in the Crown Court. The principal summary only offences are:

- driving whilst disqualified
- careless and inconsiderate driving
- failing to give information as to the identity of the driver
- failing to stop or report, and
- speeding.

ⁱⁱ Special Reasons pertain exclusively to situations where the accused has been found or has pled guilty and now faces disqualification unless he/she can persuade the Court that the circumstances of the offence are such that it would be unjust to impose a ban.
